NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The Prescott Historical Society is committed to a work environment in which all individuals are treated with respect and dignity. Each individual has the right to work in a professional atmosphere that promotes equal employment opportunity and prohibits discriminatory practices, including harassment. Therefore, Prescott Historical Society commits itself to the following non-discrimination policy.

Equal Opportunity

It is the policy of Prescott Historical Society to ensure equal employment opportunity without discrimination or harassment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age, disability, national origin, or any other characteristic protected by law. Prescott Historical Society prohibits any such discrimination or harassment.

Retaliation Is Prohibited

Prescott Historical Society encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of discrimination or harassment. It is the policy of Prescott Historical Society to investigate such reports. Prescott Historical Society prohibits retaliation against any individual who reports discrimination or harassment or participates in an investigation of such reports.

Definitions of Harassment

Harassment on the basis of any protected characteristic is strictly prohibited. Under this policy, harassment is verbal or physical conduct that denigrates or shows hostility toward an individual because of his/her race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, or any other characteristic protected by law or that of his/her relatives, friends or associates, and that:

- Has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment;
- Has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or,
- Otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities.

Harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to: epithets, slurs or negative stereotyping; threatening, intimidating or hostile acts; denigrating jokes; and written or graphic material that denigrates or shows hostility or aversion toward an individual or group and that is placed on walls or elsewhere on the employer's premises or circulated in the workplace.

Sexual harassment constitutes discrimination and is illegal under federal, state and local laws. For the purposes of this policy, sexual harassment is defined, as in the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission Guidelines, as unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when, for example:

- Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual's employment;
- Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or
- Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

Sexual harassment may include a range of subtle and not so subtle behaviors and may involve individuals of the same or different gender.

Sexually harassing conduct includes, but is not limited to: unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors; sexual jokes and innuendo; leering, whistling or touching; insulting or obscene comments or gestures; display in the workplace of sexually suggestive objects or pictures; and other physical, verbal or visual conduct of a sexual nature.

Individuals and Conduct Covered

This policy applies to all applicants and employees, whether related to conduct engaged in by fellow employees or someone not directly connected to Prescott Historical Society such as an outside vendor, consultant or customer.

Conduct prohibited by these policies is unacceptable in the workplace and in any work-related setting such as outside business trips, business meetings and business-related social events.

Reporting an Incident of Harassment, Discrimination or Retaliation

Prescott Historical Society encourages reporting of all perceived incidents of discrimination, harassment or retaliation, regardless of the offender's identity or position. Individuals who believe that they have been the victim of such conduct should discuss their concerns with their immediate supervisor, manager or agency human resources representative.

In addition, Prescott Historical Society encourages individuals who believe they are being subjected to such conduct promptly to advise the offender that his or her behavior is unwelcome and request that it be discontinued. Prescott Historical Society recognizes, however, that an individual may prefer to pursue the matter through informal or formal complaint procedures.

Conclusion

- Prescott Historical Society has developed this policy to ensure that all its employees can work in an environment free from harassment, discrimination and retaliation.
- Prescott Historical Society will make every reasonable effort to ensure that all concerned are familiar with these policies and aware that any complaint of violation of such policies will be investigated and resolved appropriately.
- The Prescott Historical Society will distribute a copy of this Equal Opportunity Policy Statement to all agency employees and post it in the Lawler Exhibit Center and the Library and Archives. This policy is also accessible to employees at www.sharlothallmuseum.org.
- All employment announcements shall include the phrase:

“AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY AGENCY”
